OER Adaptation Grant 2023-24

Continuing our work with the Washington Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI), we again received the grant to develop curricula for K-12 educators to teach the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in their classrooms.

We look forward to maintaining our connection with the Washington OSPI office and will be releasing lesson plans for the remaining 5 SDGs in June of 2025.

Access the full SDG curricula HERE, and explore our other curriculum resources for educators and students HERE!

As we chart our course for the future, Global Classroom remains committed to expanding its reach and impact, securing grants, and developing curriculum resources that promote global education and engagement. Ultimately, we stand as a beacon of excellence in promoting global competence and engagement, fostering a community of informed and empowered individuals dedicated to building a brighter, more interconnected future.
