

Editorial Worksheet

As a journalist, write an editorial in which you describe the factors that make a country or community more susceptible to inequality between genders, using specific evidence to support your claims. Compare the U.S to another country and examine the economic, social, and political impacts of gender bias. In conclusion, propose two or more solutions to address gender equality.

1. Compile a list of sources you plan to use in your editorial.
 -
 -
 -

2. Brainstorm some factors that make a country or community more susceptible to gender inequality.

3. Choose a country other than the United States to discuss in your editorial. Then, compare its level of gender equality to that of the United States.

Country: _____

Similarities	Differences

4. After going through your research, list at least two solutions to address gender equality.
 -
 -

5. Draft your editorial, based on all your research.

KWL Chart

Answer the questions below in your own words. Then, fill out the Know and Wonder sections of your KWL chart. You can fill out the Learn section as the lesson goes on.

What does it mean to be equal?

Why do you think gender equality is considered a fundamental human right?

Know What do you already know about gender equality?	Wonder What do you wonder about gender equality? What questions do you have?	Learn What have you learned about gender equality in this lesson?